- (d) loss of profits or anticipated profits;
- (e) wasted expenditure; or any indirect or consequential losses.

11. None of the Parties shall do anything to impair the rights of any of the other Parties in their trademarks or other intellectual property and none of the other Parties shall represent that it has any right to (or to use) such trademarks except as expressly permitted under this Agreement. All rights in and to the Project, get-up, logos, goodwill and reputation, and any related intellectual property rights, shall remain owned by the Company, save for any intellectual property rights existing in the Authorities trade marks, station name and branding. In the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, neither Party shall do or permit any act within its control which may be derogatory to the other Party, its products or services, its brands or trade or service marks or is likely in any way to damage or impair the high standing or reputation of that Party.

12. Each of the Parties hereby acknowledge and accept that each party owns all rights, titles and interests in and to its own respective intellectual property and in any derivative works thereto including but not limited to trademark rights, copyright etc.

13. Each party undertakes that it shall not, at any time during this Agreement and for a period of 5 years after termination of this Agreement, disclose to any person any Confidential Information that has been disclosed to it for the purpose of entry into or performance of this Agreement except as permitted by clauses 13(a) and 13(b).

a. Each party may disclose the other party's Confidential Information:

- i. to its employees, officers, representatives or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of carrying out the party's obligations under this Agreement on a need to know basis. Each party shall ensure that each of its employees, officers, representatives or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's Confidential Information complies with this clause; and
- ii. as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction, any governmental or regulatory authority or stock exchange provided that the disclosing party notifies the other party in advance of the disclosure if permitted.

b. The parties agree that the obligations set out in clause 13(a) shall not apply to any confidential information which:

- i. is, or subsequently becomes, public knowledge other than through a breach of this Agreement by the receiving party;
- ii. the receiving party can demonstrate, to the reasonable satisfaction of the disclosing party, was known by the receiving party prior to disclosure by the disclosing party and that the receiving party was not under any obligation of confidence in respect of such information;
- iii. the receiving party can demonstrate, to the reasonable satisfaction of the disclosing party, was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party not under an obligation of confidence to the disclosing party or its group;
- iv. the receiving party can demonstrate was developed independently of and without reference to any confidential information provided to the receiving party by the disclosing party; or

- v. the parties agree in writing is not confidential.
- c. Each party agrees to use the other party's confidential information only for the purpose of performing its obligations under this Agreement.

14. In performing their obligations under this Agreement each Party shall:

- a. comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption (including but not limited to the Bribery Act 2010 and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act 1977) and maintain its own policies and procedures in this respect;
- b. as soon as reasonably practicable report to each other any offer, request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by the other party in connection with the performance of this Agreement;
- c. ensure that any person associated with either party who is providing services or goods in connection with this Agreement does so only on the basis of a written contract including similar anti-corruption terms;
- d. comply with all applicable anti-slavery and human trafficking laws, statutes, regulations from time to time in force including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and maintain throughout the term of this Agreement its own policies and procedures to ensure its compliance;
- e. not engage in any activity, practice or conduct that would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 4, of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 if such activity, practice or conduct were carried out in the UK; and
- f. include in its contracts with its subcontractors and suppliers applicable and appropriate anti-slavery and human trafficking provisions.

Breach of this clause 14 shall be deemed a material breach of the Agreement.

15. The Sponsor shall not, and shall procure that it shall not pay any commission, fees or grant any rebates to any employee, officer or agent of the Authority nor favour employees, officers or agents of the Authority with gifts or entertainment of significant cost or value nor enter into any separate business arrangement with employees, officers or agents of the Authority without the Authority's written approval. the Authority acknowledges and agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as in any way restricting the editorial discretion and activities of the Sponsor and its group..
16. Any notice, demand or communication required to be given in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and may be delivered by hand, prepaid recorded delivery or first class post addressed to the recipient at its registered office or any other address (including a facsimile number) notified to the other Party in writing in accordance with this paragraph as an address to which notices, invoices and other documents may be sent. The notice, demand or communication will be deemed to have been duly served if delivered by (a) hand, at the time of delivery; or (b) post, 2 business days after being posted or in the case of airmail 14 business days after being posted.
17. The parties may not assign any of their rights or duties under this Agreement without the prior written consent of both of the other Parties, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
18. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.
19. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless expressly stated to be waived and communicated in writing to the other Party.

20. Nothing in this Agreement shall constitute or be deemed to constitute any partnership or agency arrangement between the Parties.
21. Save that any subsidiary (as defined in section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006) of the Authority has the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement in accordance with the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 ("Third Party Act"), the Parties do not intend that any of the terms of this Agreement shall be enforceable by virtue of the Third Party Act by any person not a party to it provided always that the Parties are entitled to vary or rescind this Agreement without the consent of any other person including such Authority subsidiaries.
22. Any variation to this Agreement agreed by the Parties shall be recorded in writing.
23. The laws of England govern this Agreement and the Parties shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
