

Answer sheet

Here are some safety facts. Some are true and some are false. People will often guess when they are not sure of an answer but when your life depends on it it's best to be sure! Read them carefully and then decide which ones are true and which ones are false.

Traffic is the biggest killer of children and young people True. Most accidents happen in the area where the child lives.	There are help points on most piers, DLR and Underground platforms True. Refer to the help points Photo Cards.	An Underground train has a mass of 200 tonnes True. A full load of passengers will add 70 tonnes.	You should never talk to a bus driver when they are driving. False. You can talk to them in the event of an emergency.
Only one rail on the Underground carries the electrical current False. All four rails carry electricity.	There are more road accidents in winter False. There are more accidents in summer.	If you find an unattended bag you should pick it up and give it to a member of staff False. Don't touch it, get away from it and report it.	When cycling you do not have to obey road signs or signals False. Cyclists are considered road users.
You are not allowed to stand on the stairs or upstairs on a double decker bus True. It is dangerous in case you fall down the stairs or hit a window.	Most accidents happen on the escalators on the Underground True. You need to stand facing forward and hold on with your right hand. Do not run.	If you saw an object on a DLR track you should pick it up False. Leave it where it is and tell a member of staff or use the help point.	A bus has a mass 15 times as much as a family sized car True. It has a mass of up to 15 tonnes.
A family sized car has a mass of one tonne True. You have an 80 per cent chance of being seriously injured or killed if you are hit at 40mph.	You should only use a help point in an emergency False. You can use the information button to ask advice.	You should wait your own body length away from the road or any platform edge True. If you fall over your whole body will land in a safe place.	A member of staff can be identified by a uniform or ID badge True. Always ask a member of staff for help rather than a stranger.

Name

Date

Here are some safety facts. Some are true and some are false. People will often guess when they are not sure of an answer but when your life depends on it it's best to be sure! Read them carefully and then sort decide which ones are true and which ones are false.

Traffic is the biggest killer of children and young people	There are help points on most piers, DLR and Underground platforms	An Underground train has a mass of 200 tonnes	You should never talk to a bus driver when they are driving
Only one rail on the Underground carries the electrical current	There are more road accidents in winter	If you find an unattended bag you should pick it up and give it to a member of staff	When cycling you do not have to obey road signs or signals
You are not allowed to stand on the stairs or upstairs on a double decker bus	Most accidents happen on the escalators on the Underground	If you saw an object on a DLR track you should pick it up	A bus has a mass 15 times as much as a family sized car
A family sized car has a mass of one tonne	You should only use a help point in an emergency	You should wait your own body length away from the road or any platform edge	A member of staff can be identified by a uniform or ID badge